

Rising talent tests the breeze at changing of the guard

PETER McINTOSH

DOLPHINS cruised Wallis Lake and a changing of the guard looked imminent when senior Sabot sailor Matt Graham and juniors Kurt Hansen and Lindsay Pike successfully wrapped up the defence of their northern NSW zone titles at the weekend.

Due to their dominance throughout the 12-heat championship both Graham in Black Label and Hansen and Pike in Need for Speed went into the final round at Taree and Wallis Lake, Forster, with victory already assured.

But other placings were undecided and there continued to be keen competition among teammates to beat those who set the benchmark before they moved on.

And that effort translated into victories in the final heat on Wallis Lake to the runners-up in both divisions by the narrowest of margins.

In seniors Vardon Robson in Thunderstruck recorded his second win of the championship while in juniors Sophie McIntosh and Danielle Hughes in Double Matt Graham wins his seventh NSW northern zone Sabot championship title in Black Label.

Diamond beat the champions by a boat length for their fourth win. Third place overall in seniors went to Gemma Hughes, from Eliza Hansen, while in juniors

Blake and Ashleigh Robson were third overall. With Graham departing the Sabot scene to focus on skiing and Hansen due to advance to seniors, those snapping at their heels will get their chance to shine next season. The zone win was Graham's seventh in his highly successful Sabot career, while Hansen has steered his way to two junior zone titles. Other promising seniors included Matt Lang who enjoyed a second placing on Manning River and Henry Makin who twice placed third.

Junior zone winners Kurt Hansen and Lindsay Pike in Need for Speed.

Senior runner-up Vardon Robson in Thunderstruck.
